

The Motability Scheme

	The Motability Scheme gives disabled people a way to use government money to pay for help to get around.
	Motability is a charity set up by the government to help disabled people be more independent.
	People who receive government-funded mobility allowances, such as Disability Living Allowance, should be able to get help from Motability.
	Motability take all or part of your mobility benefit.

In return, you can lease cars, powered wheelchairs or scooters from Motability.

Adapted and wheelchair accessible vehicles are also available.
