

The Disabled Person's Railcard

|                                                                                     |                                                                                                  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | The Disabled Person's Railcard allows disabled people to travel on trains for less money. |
|   | You can save up to a third with a Railcard.                                               |
|  | If someone is travelling with you they can also get the same discount.                    |
|  | A one year Railcard costs £20.                                                            |
|  | A three year Railcard costs £54.                                                          |

To get an application form go to:

www.disabledpersons-railcard.co.uk

The Freedom Pass scheme operates in Greater London.

Freedom pass holders can travel for free on most forms of public transport across London.

To find out more about the scheme, visit:

www.londoncouncils.gov.uk/services/freedom-pass