

Online and offline friends

Think about everyone you know. Everyone you know falls in one of the below groups.
Turn over the page and fill in the circles with the people you know and how you know them.

Online – People you know on the internet

Offline – People you have met in person

People I only know
online

People I only know
offline

People I know
online and offline