

Who are Mencap?

Mencap is a learning disability charity in England, Wales & Northern Ireland.

We want a world where people with a learning disability are valued equally, listened to and included.

What will happen in the project?

Mencap wants to work with 9 different communities.

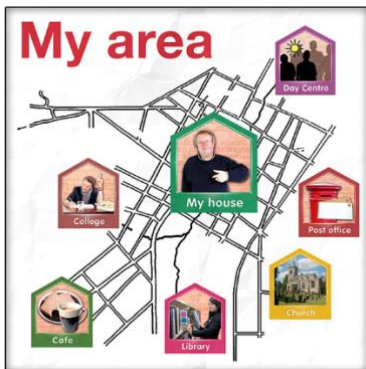

We want to hear from you about your community.

It is free to get involved.

What is a community?

A community is a place where people live.

A community can be in a city, town, village or neighbourhood. It can be your local area.

What areas are covered by this project?

This project will work with communities in England, Wales & Northern Ireland.

You can help us decide what communities we should work with.

What will I be signing up for?

If you sign up, someone at Mencap will get in touch to talk to you about your community.

Can I tell other people about the project?

Yes you can.

If you know someone who wants to be involved, please tell them about how they can get in touch with Mencap.
