A safe, supportive home for people with more complex needs

Dolphin Court's bungalows offer a warm, welcoming and highly supportive home environment for people with a learning disability who require a higher level of support.

Located in Havant, just a short walk from the town centre and with excellent transport links nearby, the service combines a calm, secure setting with strong connections to the local community.

A Home Designed for Comfort and Support

Set within a secure, gated development, the bungalows provide accessible, thoughtfully designed living spaces that support people to feel safe, comfortable and settled.

Each bungalow includes:

- Spacious, accessible bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms
- Bright, homely kitchens and dining areas
- Comfortable lounges for relaxing and socialising
- A dedicated sensory room
- Access to a pleasant, secure garden
- On-site parking

The environment is designed to be calm, inclusive and supportive, helping people feel at ease and able to thrive.

Support for More Complex Needs

The houses are particularly suited to people who may:

- Require higher levels of day-to-day support
- Benefit from a structured, supported environment
- Have additional communication, sensory, mobility or health needs

We provide 24-hour, person-centred support, tailored to each individual. This includes:

- Personal care and daily living support
- Support with communication, including non-verbal communication styles
- Positive behaviour support and active support approaches
- Assistance with health needs, medication and appointments
- Emotional reassurance and consistent routines

Our experienced staff team take time to understand each person, ensuring support is delivered in a way that is respectful, responsive and centred around the individual.

Life at Dolphin Court

Dolphin Court is a lively and inclusive service, with plenty of opportunities to take part in meaningful activities both at home and in the community.

People enjoy:

- Group activities such as film nights, music sessions and arts and crafts
- Regular social events, including BBQs, celebrations and themed evenings
- Trips out to cafés, shops and local attractions
- Monthly inclusion discos and community events
- Outdoor activities and visits to nearby green spaces and the coast

Within Bungalow 2, people have varied interests including music, films, crafts, sports and cooking. They enjoy spending time together and would welcome someone who would like to be part of a friendly household, while also respecting personal space and independence.

People we support communicate in different ways, including sounds, limited words or singing, and staff are skilled in understanding and responding to these individual communication styles.
